

MRS. HERMAN OELRICHS WILL GIVE LARGE AFFAIR IN NEWPORT

A Motion Picture Play Entitled "The Battle Cry of Peace" Will be Produced for First Time. Doings of Philadelphians

ONE of the sensational events of the season at Newport will be the presentation in the ballroom of Rose Cliff, of the residence of Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, of a motion picture play, entitled "The Battle Cry of Peace." The affair will take place the first week in September, probably on the night of the 11th. Mrs. Oelrichs will be assisted by Mr. Preston Gibson. These pictures have only been shown officially in the Admiral of the Atlantic fleet and his officers and men, and the commander of the Narragansett Bay Naval station and his officers and men. The company who posed for the pictures includes not only a group of talented actors, but noted men of affairs of the United States, representing the army, navy, church and State, among them being Admiral Dewey, Secretary of War Garrison, General Leonard Wood, Doctor Norman Abbott and Hudson Maxim. The films are dedicated to the mothers of America, and will not be released to the general public for several months. The ballroom of Rose Cliff is admirably adapted for a presentation of this sort, and is amply equipped with every requirement of the stage. A supper and dance, to which Mrs. Oelrichs will issue several hundred invitations, will follow the production of the pictures.
